Board re-elects officers, recognizes Lee for service

DES MOINES, IA – Siroos Shirazi, M.D., Iowa City, a surgeon at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, was re-elected chairperson of the Board of Medicine at the Board's organizational meeting April 9 in Des Moines.

Also re-elected were Rodney Zeitler, M.D., an Iowa City internist, vice chairperson, and Janice Galli, D.O., a Sioux City family practitioner, secretary.

The 10-member Board recognized Yasyn Lee, M.D., a Dubuque psychiatrist, who is completing her service on the Board. Shirazi presented her service on the Board. Shirazi presented Lee with a plaque, citing Lee's 13 years of service to The Board. Lee joined the Board in 2004 and served as its chairperson from 2006 to 2009. She was a member of the Board's Physician Health Committee from 1997 to 2003, serving as chairperson from 2000 to 2003. She was recently appointed to the National Board of Medical Examiners.
